In Brief & Victorian Bar News Media Kit 2023

Who are we?

The Victorian Bar is the home of some 2,200 barristers practising in diverse areas of the law. They are lawyers skilled in dispute resolution both in and out of Court, advocacy and strategic advice.

The Victorian Bar comprises 32.9% female barristers and 67.1% male barristers. Half the Bar's members are under age 50.

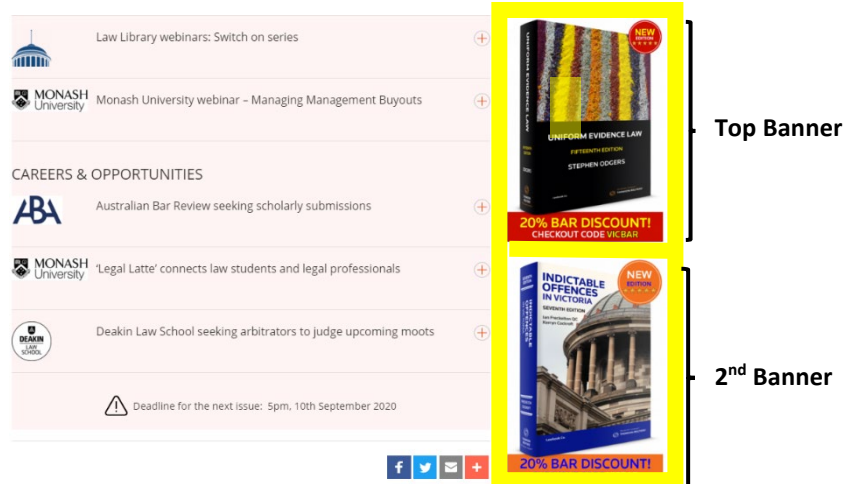

In Brief

In Brief is a weekly e-newsletter sent to Victorian Bar members and approximately 400 other external subscribers. It is sent every Friday and includes a message from the Victorian Bar President. In Brief also contains a list of notices, comprising news, events and updates of interest to barristers and the wider legal profession. The e-newsletters are found on the 'News & Events' page of the website.

Advertising in In Brief

Opportunities exist to advertise in each edition of In Brief. There is space for two static vertical banners on the right-hand side of the webpage containing In Brief message and notices - highlighted in the image on the right.

As readers scroll down, the banners remain static and visible.

Advertisements include an opportunity to link to the advertiser's website.
