

VICTORIAN BAR

TRINDADE

Professor Francis Anthony

The President and members of the Victorian Bar extend deepest sympathy to the family of Professor Emeritus Francis Trindade. Francis was a member of the Victorian Bar for more than 24 years. He read with Leslie Glick (now QC) and Jeremy Ruskin (now QC). He was on the Practising List for more than a year; on the Academics List but, until 2001, still with a Practising Certificate; then, from 2004, on the List of Retired Counsel. He was Sir Owen Dixon Professor at the Monash Law School; Sabbatical Visitor at Balliol College and Visiting Fellow at Corpus Christi College Oxford; and Visiting Professor at the National University of Singapore. He was co author of Torts in Australia and of The Constitution of Malaysia: Its Development 1957-77 – both Oxford University Press.
