

MONASH
University

Reasonable Belief in Consent: Problems and Possibilities in Rape Law Reform

Panel Discussion

Join leading academics, legal practitioners and activists for an evening of rethinking sexual consent law in Australia.

Panellists

- Professor Jonathan Crowe
Bond University
- Dr Rachael Burgin
Swinburne Law School
- Katrina Marson
Churchill Fellow and Criminal Lawyer
- Lidia Thorpe
The first Aboriginal woman in Victorian Parliament and former Greens MP

The discussion will be facilitated by Associate Professor Jacqui Horan from Monash University. Following the panel, we invite you to enjoy a drinks and canapés reception.

Saxon Mullins will launch a research and advocacy initiative at the reception.

Event timings

4.45pm	Registration
5.00pm – 6.30pm	Panel Discussion
6.30pm – 7.30pm	Drinks and Canapés

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

This professional development activity has been designed to meet the CPD needs of lawyers. If this session does meet your CPD needs according to the Uniform CPD \(Solicitors\) Rules 2015 available at you may claim 1 CPD unit for each hour of attendance (breaks not included).

EVENT DETAILS

DATE	Tuesday 11 February 2020
TIME	4.45pm – 7.30pm
VENUE	Monash University Law Chambers, 555 Lonsdale St Melbourne VIC
COST	Free
REGISTER	http://bit.ly/2NV3N1i

Co-hosted by:

MONASH
LAW

